Golfstaten importeren veel groenten en fruit

Iran grote exporteur

De Golfstaten maar ook Iran zijn redelijk belangrijke spelers op de markt van verse groenten en fruit. De Golfstaten importeren jaarlijks voor een bedrag van ruim 6 miljard dollar aan verse groenten en fruit. In hoeveelheid gezien gaat het om ruim 8 miljoen ton.

Iran is vooral een exportland van verse groenten en fruit. Jaarlijks exporteert Iran rond de 5,5 miljoen ton verse groenten en fruit. Met een exportwaarde van meer dan 2 miljard dollar. Naar hoeveelheid gezien was Iran wereldwijd in 2023 de 7^{de} exporteur van verse groenten fruit. Nog voor buurland Turkije. Iran exporteert het meeste naar Irak en verder ook naar de Verenigde Arabische Emiraten, Rusland, Afghanistan, India, Pakistan, Oman en Qatar.

EU import uit Midden Oosten, vooral uit Israël

De EU import van verse groenten en fruit uit landen in het Midden Oosten is van bescheiden omvang. Israël is veruit de belangrijkste met in het afgelopen jaar een hoeveelheid van ruim 180.000 ton met een waarde van ruim een half miljard euro. Iran is de tweede leverancier uit die regio met in 2025 een import van 22.000 ton met een waarde van 44 miljoen euro. Uit Iran worden wel behoorlijk wat (pistache)noten ingevoerd.

Enorme productie in Iran

Iran is een enorme producent van groenten en fruit. Jaarlijks zou er volgens FAO cijfers rond de 25 miljoen ton worden geoogst. Van de landen in het Midden Oosten is Iran daarmee veruit de grootste. Saoedi Arabië is de nummer met twee met ruim 5 miljoen ton. Dan volgen Syrië (4 miljoen ton), Israël (2,7), Irak (2,6) en Jordanië (2,2).

Grote producten in het Midden Oosten zijn: tomaten, dadels, sinaasappelen, uien, appelen, watermeloenen en druiven.

Verenigde Arabische Emiraten belangrijkste importeur

De Verenigde Arabische Emiraten zijn van de Golfstaten de belangrijkste importeur. In het afgelopen jaren importeerde de Verenigde Arabische Emiraten 3,5 a 4 miljoen ton verse groenten en fruit met een waarde van 2,5 miljard dollar. Saoedi Arabië is jaarlijks goed voor een import van rond de 2,5 miljoen ton.

In de regio is Irak met 3,5 miljoen ton ook een grote importeur. Iran is met 5,3 miljoen een hele grote exporteur van verse groenten en fruit.

Golfstaten importeren veel uit Zuid Afrika en Egypte

De Golfstaten halen hun verse groenten en fruit uit een groot aantal landen. De belangrijkste zijn: Zuid Afrika, Egypte, China en Ecuador. De meest geïmporteerde producten zijn: appels, sinaasappelen, uien, dadels, bananen, mango's, citroenen, exoten en knoflook.

De EU landen exporteerden in het afgelopen jaar ruim 200.000 ton verse groenten en fruit naar de Golfstaten en verder 90.000 ton naar Israël 30.000 ton naar Jordanië. De EU export naar Iran, Irak en Libanon was miniem.

De totale waarde van de EU export van verse groenten en fruit naar landen in het Midden Oosten had vorig jaar een omvang van bijna een half miljard euro.

Vooral EU appels naar het Midden Oosten

Appelen is veruit het belangrijkste product dat de EU landen naar het Midden Oosten exporteren. Vorig jaar ging het om 214.000 ton. Dat was wat meer dan de direct daaraan voorgaande jaren maar het is al eens meer geweest. Het gaat vooral om Italiaanse appels, vorig jaar 150.000 ton gevolgd door appels uit Frankrijk en Polen met beide ruim 20.000 ton. De meeste appels gingen naar Saoedi Arabië op afstand gevolgd door Israël een dan Jordanië.

Verder ging er vorig jaar 32.000 ton uien naar het Midden Oosten waarvan 26.500 ton uit Nederland. De meeste gingen naar Israël.

Er ging 10.000 ton Spaanse sinaasappelen naar het Midden Oosten. Ook konden er bijna 10.000 ton EU peren naar het Midden Oosten worden uitgevoerd. Andere EU producten die naar het Midden Oosten gaan zijn: kiwi's, kaki's, pruimen en mandarijnen.
